JAZZ SNOWSTORM STAGES FREAK DANCE WITH SPRING

NEW YORK, April 1.—A jazz snowstorm, in which winter staged a rough dance with spring to a thunder obligato and lightning novelty effects, and finally tired out its frailest partner, swept the Atlantic States today.

The freak storm was said to have set an April record in New York, and in most of the country it visited. Wind, sleet down in fluffy snow to a depth varying from four and a half inches in Connecticut, to eleven inches in Baltimore's suburbs.

In many instances the snow carried down New York telephone and telegraph wires, interfered with harbor shipping, delayed commuters' trains and was responsible for a rear-end collision of elevated trains, resulting in the death of one man and injuries to fifteen others.

NONPAREIL VILLAGER BRINGS BEST PRICE

Miss Bode and Dr. Wilson Win First Riding Prices

With one exception, prices paid at yesterday's bull sale at the Spring Show were low, the majority of bids ranging between $80 and $175.

The exception was Nonpareil Villager, a beautiful roan bull, 442 lbs. by Alton W. Hall of Mountain View, Alberta, which was bought by H. Shellenberger of Spruce Grove for $200.

The standard of the horses taking part in the events in the Arena during the evening, was high.

Considerable interest was shown in all classes. Nearly seven hundred members of the Edmonton Saddle Club were in the ring at the start of the evening.

Once and for all, the evening was by popular vote of the audience, resulted in Miss Violet Bode being declared the winner of the first prize.

Dr. Wilson, who was riding a lady and Dr. W. A. Wilson, first gentleman.

Novice saddle horse won 162 hands was the first event, and was won by Mrs. B. owned by H. C. Wilson. The W. W. owned by C. W. Field, was second.

Competition for the light delivery classes, and Judge Joseph L. Bode, was the winner.

Debate on Program Is Extended

Bill For Eastern Line Is Passed After Eleven O'Clock

RESOLUTIONS PROVIDED FOR $28,000,000 COSTS

Railways Must Be in Politics Says Marler in Speech

OTTAWA, April 1.—(Canadian Press).—The branch line program of the Canadian National Railways began a course in the House today which was fair to be long and arduous.

The program is comprised in twenty-six separate resolutions, providing twenty-six separate bills, each covering a branch line.

They are discussed one by one, and the first branch line in New Brunswick, was debated both after noon and evening.

Discussion on this one resolution continued until eleven o'clock in the evening, when it was adopted, and a bill based on the provisions was introduced.

Twenty-five other branch line resolutions still remain for consideration.

Mr. Marler explained the immediate resolution before the house, which was to provide for the construction of a line in the province of New Brunswick.

King of Swat in Good Form

—Ball May Be Still Travelling

NEW YORK, April 1.—While Babe Ruth's Big Boy yesterday homered the longest home run of his career, thus helping the Yankees beat Rochester International 5 to 3, and Washington crushed Brooklyn 5 to 3, rain prevented the Giants from playing at the Polo Grounds in hotel ball yesterday, where the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago White Sox as company, but the game was postponed to tomorrow.

From the home plate to the center field fence on the second day of the season, the distance is 425 feet. The center field fence is ten feet high. The ball slammed by the Babe cleared the fence by ten feet, and when last seen was soaring and speeding with undiminished velocity. Although there was no statistics, baseball writers and other experts agreed that this homer was a record for the Babe.

The Yankees were in a sluggish mood generally, both Austin Ward and Freddy Hoffman posting the ball for the circuit, the team as a whole managing thirteen hits.

SPORT IS MY SUBJECT

By DEACON WHITE

It is not too late to bring a Parthian shot at the Vancouver Calgary hockey series that wound up in a final game at Winnipeg, the outcome of which was to settle the important question of which team was the better. Yes, it looked like the real thing to the unsophisticated Winnipeg fans—and for that matter to almost everyone else in the Dominion—and they fell over themselves in the efforts to secure seats for the game.

And the public of Winnipeg was lured to the game in large numbers by this attractive bait.

On the surface it looked like a tempting morsel, an issue that would cause both teams to step right on the gas and extend themselves to the limit to win. Yes, it looked like the real thing to the unsophisticated Winnipeg fans—and for that matter to almost everyone else in the Dominion—and they fell over themselves in the efforts to secure seats for the game.

Well, what happened? What kind of a game did it turn out to be? That, of course, is history.

Reports from Winnipeg were to the effect that the game was so rotten that the fans actually booed the Vancouver players, as they slaked off the ice. And the word went forth through the newspapers that any notions that Winnipeg citizens may have previously had of going into the professional hockey business were completely killed, because of the miserable showing of these two teams.

If that is a sample of professional hockey, we don't want it," said the irate citizens of Winnipeg, who are now trying to get out of the game.

Let us sit down and examine this thing, and see if there could possibly be any reason for the miserable showing of the champion teams of the Pacific Coast and Western Canada Hockey Leagues.

It is a fact that the manager of one team was a very smart other, being actuated only by mercenary motives, and having figured out a win in the Winnipeg game would be no P.M. at all, rather a lemon as far as potential monetary returns were concerned.

It is very plain, when you stop to think it over, that the team which drew the bye in the world's series could only participate in the last game of the series. The team that played first was sure of one melon cutting and, if they won out in this series, they would be in a second.

Thus you see, there is a motive, although it is only a mercenary one, for the Vancouver and Calgary teams to be trying to lose that game at Winnipeg. Each manager and each team could have been trying to outsmart each other at the expense of the Winnipeg public.

If such were the case, what a scream that game would have been to an outsider who was in the know. But as a Winnipeg spectator would say, "It may be comedy for you, but it is tragedy for us."

Of course there is no doubt that everything in connection with this Vancouver-Calgary hockey series was on the up and up. But it seems to me that there is no occasion for them to lay themselves open to suspicion.

(Special to The Bulletin)
TORONTO, Ont., April 1.—It seemed as if most of the players in the O.H.A. were in Division Court today when M. J. Rodden, assistant sporting editor of the Globe, former Argonaut rugby player and hockey player, at present a referee and coach of the St. Mary's hockey team, was sued by Gordon F. Leitch for $40 for assault and battery.

The row was the aftermath of the game on February 1, when Kitchener trimmed St. Mary's by a score of four to one. It was in the dressing room at the Arena, Leitch said, that Rodden assaulted him, smashing his face teeth. It cost him $40 to have them fixed.

"Why were you in the dressing room?" asked Rodden's counsel. "I don't mean that he happened to be there," Rodden replied. "I was there to see the game."

Leitch said that when he came on the scene, Rodden was having a fight with Gordon, a Kitchener player.

"He must be a poor sport to fight," Rodden said. "I was there to see the game."

"How did you come to get into the fight?" asked Leitch's counsel.

"I was there to see the game," Rodden replied. "I was there to see the game."

Ticket Charges Only Partially Substantiated

Tex Rickard and His Associates Are Cleared by Investigation

NEW YORK, April 1.—Charges of ticket speculation in connection with the Dempsey-Fiske title battle last September at the Polo grounds have been partially substantiated by an investigation of the State Athletic Commission, but not to an extent which would warrant prosecution.

The commission's probe, the findings of which were made public today, cleared Tex Rickard and his associates of charges of collusion in connection with both the sale of tickets and the payment of taxes.

Three-Cornered Deal To Be Completed Soon

NEW YORK, April 1.—A three-cornered deal involving Philadelphia, St. Louis and Brooklyn teams may be completed soon, according to reports from the Brooklyn training camp at Clearwater, Fla., today. It was said St. Louis was seeking Walter Jenkins, slugger Phil Catcher, and that Brooklyn was after Milton Stockholder, St. Louis third baseman.

OXFORD CREW IS STROKED BY W. P. MELLE

Dark Blues Have the Same Valiant Leader as Last Year

LONDON, April 1.—W. P. Mellen, who steered the Oxford crew to victory over Cambridge last spring, will again be leading the team in the dark blue shirt when the University eight races over the historic Mortlake course on the Thames this Saturday.

Behind him will be most of the other heroes of the 1923 victory, but none who were number four in the Oxford eight last year, will be missing. The crew will be made up of seven rowers and one coxswain.

WOULD ABOLISH SECRET TREATY

British Cabinet Minister Suggests Parliament Consider Agreements

RAISES PROTESTS

One Member Says Labor Is Trying to Americanize Constitution

LONDON, April 1.—An interesting debate taking place in the House of Commons today, the subject being the proposed ratification of the secret treaty between the British and French governments, which was signed at Versailles in 1919. The bill to ratify the treaty for France was introduced by the French government, and the British government was in no way responsible for the provisions of the treaty, which was concluded by the French government. The British government, however, has been asked to ratify the treaty, and the House of Commons is now debating the matter. The bill was introduced by the French government, and the British government was in no way responsible for the provisions of the treaty, which was concluded by the French government. The British government, however, has been asked to ratify the treaty, and the House of Commons is now debating the matter.

The announcement provoked protest from many members of the House, and the matter was referred to a committee. The committee is expected to report on the matter in the near future. FARMERS OWE 40,000 TONS OF SEED MONEY

Alberts Leads in Debt, Says Railway Material Built During War Is Under Hammer

OTTAWA, April 1.—Canadian farmers still owe the government $24,000,000 for seed grain advanced to them this year. A bill, introduced in the House of Commons today, provides for the repayment of this loan. The bill is expected to pass in the near future. The Canadian farmers have been in a difficult financial position since the war, and the government has been providing them with seed grain to help them get through the winter. The bill is expected to pass in the near future.

THOM

SPEND ^{in your} OWN-HOME-TOWN

YOUR COMMUNITY CAN ONLY grow and become increasingly prosperous in proportion to the business success of its merchants. For around them revolves the financial progress and the civic pride of any city. Merchandise does NOT vary with milage, as it is popularly supposed. Exactly the same quality is to be had in one town as in another. SPEND IN YOUR OWN HOME TOWN and see the TOWN GROW. Every dollar expended here is a dollar ultimately set to work in your own behalf.

Common Sense

It is sound common sense to buy goods from your home stores and home factories. When a man spends his money at home he has a chance to get it, or at least part of it, again. Large portions of our taxes are paid by our merchants and industrial concerns. If they prosper, more money in the way of taxes is available for the improvement of parks, streets and many other things that make for the happiness of all.

If you believe in Edmonton's future, support Edmonton's merchants and factories. Buy goods made in Edmonton and goods sold in Edmonton. Nothing will pay bigger dividends.

TO PATRONIZE YOUR LOCAL merchant means several significant things---first of these in LOYALTY. And then there are considerations of civic growth, better stores because of increased patronage, and a spirit of business comradeship which provides a splendid community spirit. And always remember---it's the same merchandise. The lure of the "Next Town's Business Street" is a step away from the prosperity of your OWN town---of which you are an individual part.

Let's Get Together

Everybody has a certain amount of civic pride---that sort of pride which helps make a village a town and a town a metropolitan city. The growth of any community is dependent upon the support given its citizens. If you fail in your co-operation the town either stands still or retrogrades. If you uphold the town by sustaining it whole-heartedly, you help yourself and the community. The theme of this advertisement is: "HELP YOUR CITY; BUY AT HOME!" Divide your dollars among your merchants and others who have the interests of the populace at heart. Help them and they will help you to greater values---for increased volume means decreased costs. Edmonton needs your support and you need the support of Edmonton. Let's get together and share our prosperity.

Your HOME-TOWN merchants are a CIVIC ASSET
